Record Throngs Jam Cemeteries

The "heaviest traffic in years" jammed El Camino Real in Colma Wednesday as some 30,000 San Francisco and Peninsula residents paid homage to the dead at local cemeteries.

The day was marred by one death and a minor traffic accident. Emanuel Drakos, about 70, a resident of the Hotel Rock in San Francisco, collapsed from an apparent heart attack while walking along the sidewalk in Colma to visit the cemeteries about 10 a.m. He was dead on arrival at Junipero Serra hospital.

Despite bumper-to-bumper traffic on El Camino and Junipero Serra, created mostly by cemetery visitors with a goodly number of picnickers and sight-seers included, only one accident was reported.

At 12:30 p.m. three cars were involved in a rear-end collision in front of 2263 Junipero Serra. Drivers involved were Arthur Smith Brownson, 20, of Stanford University, Warren William Baccoccio, 18, and Yvonne F. Hopkins, 32, both of San Francisco. Police said the accident occurred when Brownson's vehicle smashed into Baccoccio's, which in turn rammed into Miss Hopkins' auto. Brownson was cited by Daly City police for following too close.

COUNTY SAYS SCHOOLS MUST MAIL NOTICES

A spokesman for the county superintendent of schools said today that local school districts are responsible for mailing sample ballots and notices of election to the electorate.

There was considerable citizen protest because at the trustee election May 18 no notices were mailed out.

H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School district, said that the county had taken over the election details this year and that it was optional with the county to mail the notices.

By MONTE DAYTON

Colma, probably the quietest town in the U. S., became the busiest for a day Wednesday with the celebration of Memorial Day. Usually policed by a one-man force, the serene town of Colma had to call in dozens of outside officers to handle the crowd of thousands that thronged the local cemeteries to pay homage to the dead.

And nobody seemed to be staying away because of the presence of strikers from the gravediggers' union. If anything, there were more people visiting the cemeteries this year.

And the Peninsula Bus Lines, which has only a meager clientele normally for its run between SFO and the top of the hill in Daly City found itself in the unusual position of not being able to cram all its potential passengers on the buses.

Coffee shops and cigar stores on the top of the hill likewise shared in the temporary boom, as persons who couldn't be fitted in the crowded buses waited for the next (Continued on Page 2)

Assembly Race Holds Interest In Primary Vote

Voters will go to the polls Tuesday to elect four county officials and select their partisan candidates for state and national offices.

Although it is a presidential election year, the total vote in the north county is not expected to be heavy on the basis of relatively quiet electioneering in the past two months.

Most of the interest in national politics in this end of the county has of course been focused on the Estes Kefauver-Adlai Stevenson battle for the California presidential delegation. Both candidates have found active backers in northern San Mateo county and key Democratic figures are numbered in the camps of both sides.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower has no opposition for the Republican nomination.

The first district county supervisor position, one that in past years has brought out a considerable vote, is unopposed, with only Incumbent Thomas Callan Sr. of Colma on the ballot. Also unopposed is William M. Werder, third district supervisor.

Only mild campaigning has marked the contest for fourth district supervisor, with Incumbent Alvin Hatch of Half Moon Bay facing against Fred L. Paxton and Ralph L. Rehbein, both contractors.

Superior Judge Murray Draper is running alone for that position, rounding out the county elective posts which will be on the ballot Tuesday.

Local Campaigning

Probably the most local campaigning has been waged for the 25th Assembly district seat, with two candidates, Republican Louis Francis, attorney and Democrat W. Howard Hartley, each seeking election to a special short term which expires January 7, 1957, and to the regular term starting after that date. Both have cross-filed and are expected to win the nod of their respective parties as candidate to run in the November election for the full-length term. Also in the race is John McKenna, Republican, has cross-filed and his campaigners hope to settle the contest in the primary. James McKay, Broadmoor tax attorney, filed only with his party and is equally optimistic over winning the Democratic nomination.

State Senate Race

NO MEAT SUNDAYS, CITY COUNCIL RULES

A request that sale of meat be allowed after 6 p.m. and on Sundays was tabled by the city council Monday night after vehement protest by opponents of the proposal.

Warren Sapiro, representing King's Market, and John Putkey, appearing for George Glass, proprietor of the Spotlite market now under construction, asked for repeal of the 27-year-old city ordinance which prohibits sale of uncooked meats on Sunday and after 6 p.m.

Speaking against the proposal were Edward J. Dennis, former councilman and milk wagon drivers' union official, and Walter F. Colcagno, representing the retail meat owners, as well as several butchers representing small stores.

Proponents of repealing the law held that the ordinance was adopted to maintain proper inspection of meats and that the ordinance was now "obsolete." Sapiro pointed out that the sale of meat after 6 p.m. and on Sundays was already permitted in unincorporated San Mateo county and in several Peninsula cities.

The butchers group held that permitting sale of meat in these additional hours would pose a hardship on the small meat markets. They bolstered their argument that the consumers were satisfied with the present set-up by presenting petitions containing 2648 signatures of persons who were in favor of the status quo.

After lengthy debate from the audience, Councilman Paul Hupf moved that the proposal be tabled. Mayor Joseph Verducci abstained, and the motion to table passed, 2-1, with Councilman Del Wilson casting a negative vote. Councilman Sanford Vickers was absent.

In other action Monday, the council:

1. Voted 3-1 to hold a new hearing June 25 on applications of outside cab companies to operate here. Verducci voted against scheduling the new hearing.

2. Granted public dance license for Church of the Good Shepherd, Sharp Park, to conduct dance at Henry Doelger clubhouse in Westlake.

3. Approved dividing the city into 13 census tracts, as requested by Daly City Chamber of Commerce, to aid in compiling population information to aid in industrial development.

4. Announced that Wilson had been appointed by Verducci to serve on the North San Mateo County Sanitation district board of directors, replacing Edward J. Dennis.

Donati Drops Libel Suit Against DA

Dino Donati, who was arrested May 3 on two bookmaking counts, Tuesday dismissed a $125,000 libel suit against District Attorney Keith Sorenson.

Donati, 36, 19 Castlemont avenue, originally charged that Sorenson had libeled him in a letter to Police Chief Roland Petrocchi in which he called Donati a bookmaker and gambler.

Another $125,000 suit against the district attorney stemming from the same letter is still pending. It was filed by David H. Johnstone, Jr., ousted Daly City police inspector, and charges that statements linking Donati and Johnstone constitute libel.

Knights Big Dance Saturday In Colma

Bob Martinelli, chairman of the forthcoming Knights of Columbus dance which is to be held Saturday in Columbus Hall, Colma, announced today that the plans for this huge affair had reached the final stage. All things being in readiness, Martinelli stated, all that remains to be done now is to throw open the doors and let the festivities begin.

This affair, which is but the first of what promises to become a long series of important social events in the north end of the county, is being sponsored to raise funds for the many civic and (Continued on Page 2)

YELLOW CAB CO., OTHERS TO GET SECOND HEARING JUNE 25

Yellow Cab Co., turned down, 3-2, in its first application for six taxi permits here, will be given a new hearing June 25, the council ruled Monday night.

And any other taxi firm wishing to apply for the six new permits declared available by the council last month will be allowed to present their case at the June 25 hearing.

The hearing was set as a result of a request by Yellow Cab for a re-hearing.

Over objection of John Putkey, attorney for the Hilltop Cab Co. now serving Daly City, the council voted, 3-1, in favor of holding a new hearing. Councilman Sanford Vickers being absent.

Ask Re-Consider Vote

Mayor Joseph Verducci opposed holding the new hearing, arguing instead that the council should reconsider its original decision in turning down Yellow Cab's application, a parliamentary technicality.

In asking for re-hearing, Yellow Cab outlined supplementary information on their proposed Daly City service that was not included in their original application.

According to a letter on file with the council Monday, Yellow Cab would establish offices in Daly City, would operate vehicles with two-way radios, would eliminate the $1 surcharge for crossing San Francisco-San Mateo county boundaries, and would hire only Daly City residents as drivers.

Yellow Cab also claimed that Hilltop Cab actually had no taxi permits to operate in Daly City, the last Daly City permits having been issued in 1947 to a firm known as Daly City Royal Cab Co.

Blum Attorney

However, City Attorney Frank Blum revealed that he had served as attorney for Hilltop Cab Co. in 1948 when four permits belonging to Royal Cab were transferred to Hilltop.

"I'm certain Hilltop's applications are here, because I filed them myself," Blum explained.

As the question of whether Hilltop Cab actually had permits was being argued, George Kirchhubel, co-owner of the local taxi firm, shouted, "Do you want to file charges?"

In protesting a new hearing for Yellow, Putkey said, "There is no reason for re-hearing the matter. The council has already acted. Yellow Cab can file a new petition, then we would all get a notice of the hearing and could present our case."

'Asset To Community'

Councilman Paul Hupf first moved for a re-hearing, declaring that, "I believe Yellow Cab would be an asset to the community. Taxi cabs constitute a police problem of serious nature and they require an operator of high caliber."

Councilman Michael De Bernardi supported holding a new hearing, but maintained it should be all-inclusive and that all taxi firms should be heard. He moved accordingly, and Councilman Del Wilson seconded.

At this point Putkey charged, "You should follow parliamentary procedure to some extent. You've acted already on this matter. You (Continued on Page 2)

$10,000 WARRANT SINGS SWAN SONG

The $10,000 transfer of city funds that was the subject of vigorous debate and learned treatises from auditors, treasurers, attorneys, controllers, managers, et al, has finally come to rest in the municipal water works fund—its destination some many months ago when the ruckus was started by City Treasurer Paul Selmi.

The transfer of $10,000 from the water replacement and extension fund to the water works fund, ostensibly a routine accounting procedure, was decreed by Selmi as "illegal" and was one of the issues in his unsuccessful recall campaign against three city councilmen. He had lumped this transaction into his omnibus charge of "permitting violation of legally required fiscal procedures."

Monday night the council cancelled the original $10,000 warrant authorizing the transfer, which Selmi had refused to process, because just two weeks previous it was revealed that the transfer should have been even larger—$26,000, and the council acted accordingly. The $10,000 warrant was cancelled because one in the amount of $26,000 had been approved at the last meeting.

Thus ends the tale of the $10,000 without a home to call its own, wrapping up a controversy that involved some dozens of hours of debate, reams of legal paper and countless learned opinions from the officials and professionals involved, all of whom, with exception of Selmi, had termed the transaction perfectly legal.

In a courtroom move that stunned the prosecution, Marie Hammel this Thursday refused to testify against Dino Donati, who allegedly employed her in a bookmaking operation, on the grounds that it might incriminate her husband.

Donati, 36-year-old pin ball machine distributor who lives at 19 Castlemont, appeared in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court for preliminary hearing on charges of bookmaking and conspiracy.

Called as the first witness, Mrs. Hammel, who earlier admitted to being an employee of Donati's at a bookie operation at her home, gave only her name and address and refused to testify further, pleading the fifth amendment. Her husband faces charges by the federal government of failure to purchase a wagering stamp.

The deft legal move by Donati's attorney, James MacLanis, threw the court in a dither.

Off To Redwood City

District attorney's aides immediately went to Redwood City to secure an order from the superior court directing Mrs. Hammel to testify.

They returned and served the document, and Mrs. Hammel still remained silent, repeating her earlier plea of incriminating her husband.

Judge Bocci then declared the 47-year-old crippled housewife in contempt of court. She was ordered to appear in superior court Monday to answer the contempt charge.

Without their key witness, the prosecution could not proceed in the preliminary against Donati, and asked that it be continued to next Wednesday at 11 a.m. in municipal court.

Mrs. Hammel, also charged with bookmaking and conspiracy, had her preliminary hearing also continued to that time.

Legal Question

The question of whether or not an individual can refuse to testify on the grounds that testimony might incriminate a spouse has never been tested in court, and the penal code is vague on the technicality, according to court sources.

In San Mateo county, a court can grant a witness immunity from prosecution for testimony given under oath, but this immunity does not apply to the federal courts, which have jurisdiction over Mrs. Hammel's husband, Kenneth.

Income Tax Charges

Meanwhile, Donati faces five charges of income tax evasion filed against him Tuesday by the federal government.

In an information filed with federal district court, Donati is charged with failure to purchase his $50 wagering stamp and four separate counts of failure to pay the mandatory 10 per cent tax on all wagers accepted. According to Robert Schnacke, chief of the criminal division of the office of U. S. Attorney, the information asserts that Donati's gambling take each month for a four-month period was $10,000. The government therefore claims $1000 in taxes for each of the months, De- (Continued on Page 2)

New Contributions Arrive For Waltons

Donations for the James Waltons, burned out of their home on May 15, today reached $1421.31 in cash plus an undetermined amount in services and articles, according to Peter Markovich, spokesman for the committee to aid the family.

New pledges this week are the following: Ray-Al's, clothing for the boys; Ed Castagnetto, roofing; Tromborg Plumbing, plumbing equipment; anonymous, automatic washer; Samuel Jewelers, $100 worth of kitchen ware.

The Waltons and their four youngest children are now living with in-laws at 463 Winchester street. They had no insurance on their home at 108 Knowles avenue.

Donations may be sent to the fire chief at station No. 5, Lake Merced boulevard, or the Chamber of Commerce office, 6454 Mission street.

No Motorists Arrested In Pre-Holiday Check

Not a single drunk driver, or even one that had been drinking, or stolen car was uncovered as Daly City police stopped 822 autos in a successful pre-holiday traffic check Tuesday night in front of the War Memorial building on Mission street.

No arrests were made or citations issued in the check, but 85 motorists received traffic notices for mechanical defects or expired drivers' licenses.

The check was conducted by Daly City police officers James Sunderland and Richard Phillips and six auxiliary policemen.

"We don't want to challenge the board," said Verducci, "but we should explain our program."

Stites said he thought the reason the district had turned down the city's original joint recreation proposal, presented by former recreation Director James Mason, was that trustees felt the city should contribute matching funds.

"The cost of leadership provided by the city would easily match the amount spent by the district," explained Verducci. "Let's not lose this by failure to get together with the board."

He explained that the mailing notices and sample ballots is permissive but will not be done by the county unless there are specific instructions to do so from the local district, which must bear the cost of the mailing.

Fletcher cited section 1834 of the state education code which states, "the governing board may mail sample ballots and notices."

The only occasion when it is mandatory to mail notices and sample ballots, Fletcher explained, is on a special election to authorize a higher tax rate or sale of bonds.

In other business Monday, the council:
1. Accepted agreement with county library system with observation by City Manager Howard Stites that, "It leaves much to be desired. Next year we'll make an effort to get a more satisfactory contract."

2. Adopted ordinance annexing 85-acre McReedy lands on the Coastside and called for a complete study by the city attorney to make sure that no duplicate taxing districts will be taken in. Hupf voted 'no' on the annexation, stating that he didn't want to approve it until he was assured there would be no duplicate taxation, such as exists in a portion of Westlake.

3. Ruled that City Clerk Evelyn Mosman should have sole jurisdiction over use of the city's official records.

4. Decided to have city employees install drain pipe in First and Valley street area instead of calling for bids on the job.

6. Decided to meet with Mrs. Mosman Monday to rule on who should handle job of city assessor.

7. Directed City Engineer Cyril Weiler to prepare a priority list of the 10 streets requiring immediate maintenance or repair work.

"It was the heaviest Memorial Day turnout in 10 years," observed Lagomarsino.

All cemeteries were open to visitors, despite a strike by the gravediggers union which is nearly a month old. By earlier agreement, the strikers did not picket or display signs, but only stood at the entrance to each of the cemeteries. Lagomarsino said the traffic reached its crest about mid-day, with the heaviest activity between 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Buses bound for the cemeteries had standing room only and had to leave many of the cemetery-bound San Francisco and Daly City residents behind.

COPS CHARGE TWO MEN WITH CHILD MOLESTING HERE

Two men were arrested by Daly City police this week and booked on separate counts of child molesting.

They are Edwin Burlington, 67, of 318 Pope street, San Francisco, and Cecil Eugene La Barr, 40, a nursery worker of 363 Rhine street. Both are scheduled to appear in municipal court on June 12.

First arrest was Sunday when police were called to Frankfort park by a woman who reported that an elderly man was bothering children. Upon arrival, officers said they spotted Burlington pushing a seven-year-old girl on a swing.

When questioned, Burlington admitted to playing with the children and sometimes kissing them, police said. Two separate incidents of further intimacies were reported by parents of both the seven-year-old and another three-year-old girl.

Westlake's clown who cavorts in the shopping center on Saturdays must have cavorted in front of the right people last week.

A call came through from United Artists asking who this talent was.

THOMAS L. BOCCI may be a municipal court judge, but he has few peers in the game of golf.

Bocci, teaming up with DAVE CANTWELL, recently claimed the Knights of Columbus state golf championship. The judge carded a nifty 73, his partner a 77.

Then Bocci comes back last week to win the hole-in-one tournament sponsored by the Daly City Chamber of Commerce as part of their annual golf tournament.

A few months ago the jurist claimed first place in a mammoth week-long hole in one tournament held at a local golf driving range.

Attorneys who seek to curry the judge's friendship with a game of golf had best not make any raggers on the side.

The opening of the new Leed's tore in Westlake Monday was a gala event, and Builder HENRY DOELGER saw to it that the new firm did plenty of business the first day.

He sent all his women office employees down to Leed's and let them choose any pair they liked, for which he picked up the tab.

And Mrs. D. contributed no small amount to the opening day sales as she selected a new shoe wardrobe to help celebrate the opening.

As opening day festivities came to a close, there was satisfaction all the way around—the owners were happy, the Doelger women employees likewise, Mrs. Doelger, and Henry, too, because success of the shopping center is a pet project with him.

Burlington is now free on $500 bail.

Second arrest, of La Barr, came Tuesday night after Sergeant Dave Hansen and Officer Charles Terry staked out the residence of a 13-year-old girl at her request.

La Barr first came to police attention early this month when the mother of the girl complained that her daughter had received a lewd note from the nursery worker. Two similar letters were received shortly thereafter.

On Tuesday night the girl phoned police, saying that La Barr's wife had just called to say that she and her husband were coming to the youngster's house.

Hansen and Terry responded to the scene where they staked out the residence.

Shortly after La Barr and his wife arrived, the girl reported La Barr said he wanted to borrow an article from the basement. He asked the 13-year-old to accompany him.

She accepted, and they left. Upon reaching the basement La Barr first tried the door then attempted to molest the girl, the officers said. Hansen and Terry intervened, however, and the arrest was made.

La Barr is now free on $750 cash bail.

Legislative committee: Robert Hyde, Miss Annette Eisel, Clarence Lair, Llewellyn Reese and Herbert Winn.

In other business Monday night the board of trustees:

W'lake Boy Drives Tractor Thru Wall Of Empty House

A 13-year-old Westlake boy was transferred to Hillcrest Juvenile Home Wednesday after three companions implicated him as the member of the foursome who drove a tractor into a wall of an unoccupied house.

Henry Doelger representatives today estimated that damage to the building amounted to about $350 or $400. They said the tractor was not hurt.

Damage was discovered by Westlake Special Officer Henry Gross who radioed to Daly City police for aid. Officer Art Linhares, arriving on the scene, caught the four youths as they fled up Skyline boulevard.

The boy said by his friends to have been the driver refused to talk, Linhares said. The other boys were cooperative and thus released to their parents, he added.

As told to police, the youths first backed a Doelger truck across the street in the Palisades area. Firing of this, they entered one of the houses under construction where they found the tractor. Climbing in, the boys started the tractor and the tractor rolled forward, smashing out the wall of the house.

Guilty Plea Entered To Beating

Plea of guilty was entered Tuesday by Richard Adam Stahl, 24, 275 Hillside boulevard, who was charged with inflicting cruel and unusual punishment on a child.

Daly City police booked Stahl, a commercial pilot student, after his 14-year-old brother, Roger, complained to officers that he had been severely beaten with a leather belt and a vacuum cleaner hose.

Roger, a student at Colma school, first entered the police station Monday afternoon when he reported that his brother had just beaten him. The boy's body showed evidence of wounds, officers said.

The youngster said that punishment was inflicted because of trouble he had been in at school.

Officer Les Bastedo accompanied the boy home where he warned Stahl against beating his brother.

After Bastedo's departure, Stahl, apparently angry with his brother's disclosure to police, took the belt and vacuum cleaner hose and again applied them to Roger's body, it is charged.

The boy fled the house, and after hiding in a neighbor's yard for half an hour, again appeared crying at the police station. This time, Roger's wounds were so severe that he was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital for emergency treatment. According to officers, the doctor's report confirmed the fact that the beating was far beyond normal punishment of a child.

Stahl, reached by phone, was told to report to the station where he was booked. In municipal court the following morning he pleaded guilty to the child beating charge. Judge Thomas L. Bocci released Stahl on his own recognizance and set sentencing for June 26 before which time a report from the probation officer is expected.

Meanwhile, Roger is being held in the county juvenile home for further treatment and care.

right are Ira Neville, Ray Lagomarsino, president Mel Battye and police chief Roland Petrocchi of the Lions and vice president Don Wiesner, treasurer

Stan Jacobson, Ron Moon, secretary Rich Duncan and Sgt. at arms, Don Monson of the Kings. President Ron O'Rourke is missing.

KLUTCH KINGS PROVIDE YOUTH HEALTHY AUTOMOTIVE OUTLET

By Jim Eggert

The man's car stalled near the Vet's Memorial on a hill, and he couldn't get the auto started again. It was one of those pesty experiences that seemed to call for a hike to a phone and a call to a local garage.

However, this was avoided when two youths drove up, stopped, got out of their car and went to work on the reluctant mobile. Soon the boys had the car in running order.

As the pair drove away, the man read the words on the card the boys had given him. "You have been assisted by a member of the KLUTCH KINGS. An organization dedicated to safe driving."

Recent Organization

The KLUTCH KINGS is an organization of teenage hot rod enthusiasts organized recently by a group of students at Jefferson high school. Incidents such as the above mentioned have already proved the worthiness of the club's intent, and done a great deal to change people's ideas about teenagers and hot rods.

The group meets each Tuesday night under the presidency of Ron O'Rourke. In addition to conducting club business, movies are shown and safety talks given at these weekly meetings.

Among the KLUTCH KINGS' immediate plans is a road run and auto show to be sponsored within the next couple of months. Club officers are now planning a 100-mile course, through Daly City with traffic inspector Hank Sunderman.

Plan Club Car

The long-range plans of the KLUTCH KINGS include the purchase of a club car, to be built by members and entered in competition under the KLUTCH KINGS sponsorship.

Although the club was organized among students at the school, it has no formal connection with Jefferson. It is sponsored by the Daly City-Colma Lions club, and is endorsed by the Daly City police department.

The club is financed by a $5 initiation fee plus weekly dues of 50 cents. In addition, members who receive traffic citations for moving violations must pay the club a duplicate fine. Needless to say, it is hoped by the group members that they won't receive much revenue from this latter source.

The KLUTCH KINGS are now preparing corporation papers with the help of attorney Hartley Appleton of Daly City.

No Drag Strip

One of the club's problems is that there is no drag strip available for testing hot rods. However, a solution may be at hand. As a result of a recent juvenile delinquency conference in Burlingame, an abandoned air strip at Half Moon Bay may be made available in the near future.

In addition to president O'Rourke, the members recently elected the following officers: Don Wiesner, vice president; Don Monson, Sgt. at arms; Rich Duncan, secretary; and Stan Jacobson, treasurer.

Other Interests

Don't get the idea that these boys spend their lives in greasy clothes under a torn-down auto, however. Many of the KLUTCH KINGS are familiar faces to followers of Jeff's sports teams, while others are active in student government and other school activities.

Groups such as the KLUTCH KINGS have given teenagers a healthy outlet for their automotive interests, and at the same time countered some of the less desirable publicity given to hot rods.

It is the plan of the founders to allow members to remain in the club after their graduation from high school in order to provide a meeting place for youth with automotive interests.

DRUNK DRIVING ARRESTS

A total of 2,905 persons were arrested for drunk driving in the unincorporated areas of California during the first quarter of 1956, according to the National Automobile Club.

Second Jefferson-Sequoia Championship Tilt on Today

Jefferson high school's varsity baseball team goes after the first of two wins it needs to grab the Peninsula Athletic League championship when it meets Sequoia this afternoon (Friday) on the Redwood City diamond.

Ed Leveroni is scheduled to hurl for Lou Martin's Indians, who dropped the first game of the three game series to Sequoia, 14-4, Tuesday on the local diamond.

If Jefferson wins today, the deciding game will be played on a neutral diamond tomorrow, with Ray Vuillemainroy probably taking the hill for the Indians. A Sequoia win today would give it the title and end a still successful season for Jeff.

Indians Come Back
Sequoia definitely has the advantage, but the Indians have come from behind successfully before to reach the championship finals.

After dropping the first game of the semi-finals to SPAL champ, Willow Glen, the Indians came back to drop the Rams twice, Friday and Saturday, 10-2 and 6-0, behind the hitting of Bob Grubb and the strong arms of Vuillemainroy and Leveroni.

Vuillemainroy came back after only two days rest to even up the Willow Glen series with a fifty four-hitter last Friday. Leveroni took over the next day and threw another four hitter at the Rams to put the Jeffs in the finals.

Cherokees Take Lead
The Cherokees took the lead in the title series by scoring 14 runs in two big outbursts Tuesday. Sequoia countered six times off of loser Vuillemainroy in the third inning to wipe a one-run Jeff lead, and came back with eight scores in the fifth off of Vuillemainroy and reliever Leveroni after the Indians had moved to 4-6 in the fourth.

Tom Cloutier singled in Bill Strassburger, who also hit safely, to open the scoring in the first inning. The Indians got another in the third when Cloutier tripled across Bob Bailey, who had walked.

Jefferson got back in the game in the fourth when Ino Patron's squeeze bunt scored two runs, Mike Wedlake and Grubb, hero of the Willow Glen series, both singled and advanced on an error. Patron laid down his bunt squeezing in Wedlake, and Grubb caught the Cherokees napping, scored all the way from second on the throw to first.

Grubb Hero
Grubb knocked in five runs with two homers to nail down the win Friday on the home field. His first blow came in the fourth with Wedlake on base, and increased the Jeff lead to 4-1. He added another in the fifth with two men on, and Cloutier followed suit with a bases empty homer in the same inning.

Strassburger contributed two hits and stole five of the 11 bases the Indians pilfered during the contest.

Grubb continued his torrid hitting streak to five for five in the two games. He led off the fifth inning with a round-tripper to make the score 4-0, and knocked in another run with one of his two singles.

Patron opened the game with a single, went to second on an error and came in on Grubb's first hit. With two out Cloutier singled Grubb across with the second run, which would have been enough. Patron and Cloutier, all-NPAL selections, each banged out a pair of hits.

Leveroni fanned 11 and walked only three in scoring his win, while Vuillemainroy was just as effective, striking out nine and passing a pair.

Martin To Manage
Coach Lou Martin will help manage the North squad in the North-South PAL all-star game for seniors June 9 at Stanford's sunken diamond. Vuillemainroy was named as an alternate to the North squad. Since the Indians are loaded with sophs and juniors, they placed no men on the senior team.

The following Indians placed among the league's top thirty hitters in final standings: Barrie Haan, eighth, .320; Cloutier, 16th, .281; Patron and Strassburger, tie for 19th, .278; Wedlake and Vuillemainroy, tie for 27th, .250.

120 Bay Area Linkmen 'Beat' Venturi, H. Ward
Local amateurs Ken Venturi and Harvie Ward were "beaten" by 120 golfers Saturday, as more than 1500 bay area hackers participated in the Guardsmen's benefit tourney, according to Bob Hasting of the tournament committee.

Venturi, who carded a 68, was beaten by 16 golfers, 96 topped Ward's 72 and nine others beat both of the top amateurs. Golfers paid $1 to match scores with either one of the stars, and $2 to play against both. Proceeds will go to the Guardsmen's fund to provide summer vacations for underprivileged children.

Golfers were allowed to use their full handicap, either established or determined by the Calloway system, and women were allowed six extra strokes.

Those who beat the young stars will receive scrolls entitled "You Beat Me and I Bow to a Superior Golfer." Included is Daly City golfer George Gnau, whose 70 topped Ward.

HARD RIDING
If your car seems to ride or drive irregularly, attention to one or more of the following service points may be needed, says the California State Automobile Association: Front wheel balance; chassis lubrication; shock absorbers; caster, camber and toe-in; steering linkage; universal joints.

Name Four Indians On All-NPAL Team

Four members of Jefferson high school's varsity baseball team, now fighting it out with the SPAL's Sequoia high for the Peninsula Athletic League crown, were named this week to the NPAL all-star team.

Second baseman Ino Patron and outfielder Tom Cloutier were named to the mythical first team, while pitcher Ray Vuillemainroy and outfielder Barrie Haan were chosen for the second team.

Patron, only a sophomore, was a good lead-off batter and the best defensive keystone man in the league. He batted .278 for the season.

Cloutier is a transfer from San Francisco's Poly high and has another season left with the Jeffs. He possesses a strong arm and is a good long ball hitter with a .281 average.

Vuillemainroy was the heart of Lou Martin's pitching staff, compiling a 5-3 record in Jeff's 12 league games. He pitched 55 innings, striking out 26 and walking 17. No slouch at the plate, Vuillemainroy rolled up a .250 batting average. He is the only senior among the Jeff all-stars.

Haan, another soph, was selected to the second team although he played in only nine league games. He was the league's eighth best hitter with a .320 average.

Others named to the all-star first team were pitchers Reg Christman (SM) and Mort Ek (Burl.), catcher Al Vom Steeg (SSF), first baseman Jim Hollister (Hill), shortstop Dean Prince (SSF), third baseman Lee Ferrara (Carl.), outfielders Ron Perkocho (Carl.) and Gary Russell (Cap.) and utility man Dan Barclay (Burl.).

Hanson, Gnau Share Daly City Golf Title

Einar Hanson and George Gnau carded one-under par 71s to share low gross honors in the second annual Daly City Chamber of Commerce golf tournament Thursday at Lake Merced golf and country club. Gnau also took low net honors with 71-6-65.

In the second flight Cliff Linhares grabbed low gross honors with an 82, while Will Cloutier was right behind with an 83. Cloutier tied with Ollie Nossley with 70s for low net honors.

Gilbert Buslin won low gross in the third flight with a 98, and E. Ebbinger took low net with 84-28-76.

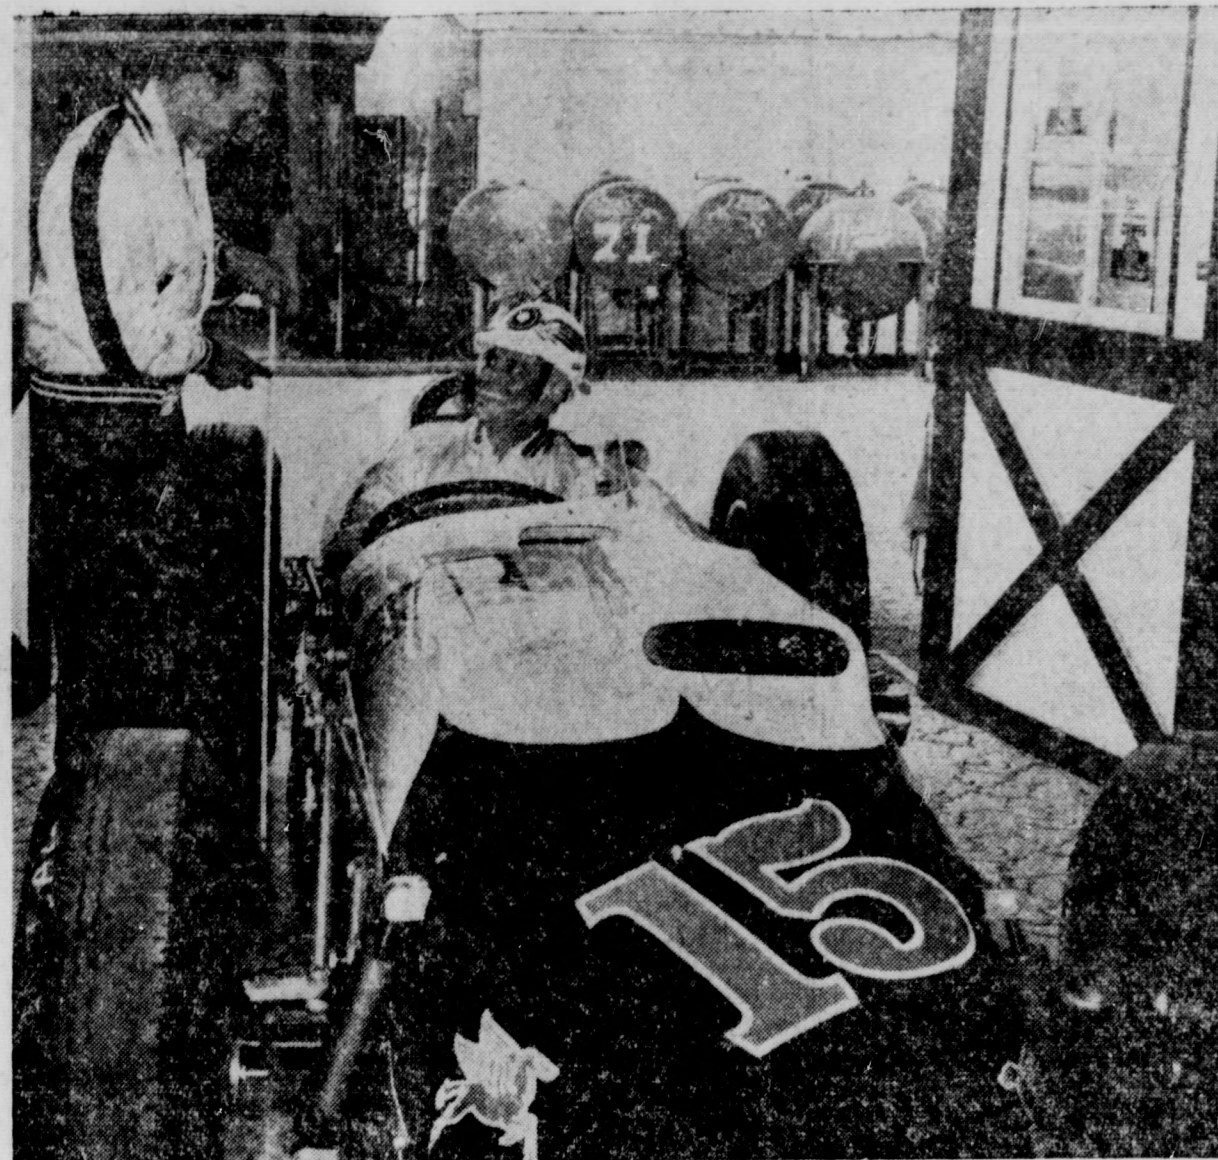

Mrs. Frances Warfield won the women's flight trophy as she took low gross and net honors with a card of 90-16-74. Mrs. Edna McIver was second with 93-17-76.

Judge Tom Bocci won the hole-in-one crown when he dropped a shot just 13 inches from the pin. Paul Supanich came within 18 inches of the cup. Lois Blum, wife of the city attorney, won the women's division with a shot 69 inches from the pin.

Defending champion Ed Castagnetto was two behind the co-leaders with a 73 as 113 persons participated in this second annual event. Ninety persons attended the dinner which followed the tourney, at which trophies and 71 additional prizes were awarded.

Vandals Hurl Nail Polish At Auto: Owner Stuck With $200 Paint Job
Application of pink nail polish to a 1953 Oldsmobile Thursday night is expected to cost the car owner $200 in a new paint job.

Victim of the vandalism, Fredrick S. Bennett, 80 Forest Grove, apt. 2, told police officers his car was parked in the street in front of 81 Forest Grove when the incident occurred. The culprits apparently threw the polish, splattering the color on both the side and roof of the auto.

BAD LUCK — Daly City's George Bignotti, local florist, looked happy as he talked over big Indianapolis "500" race with Johnny Boyd of Fresno, who piloted Bignotti's Boyes Seal fast special entry. But like 14 of the 33 entries in the grueling race, Bignotti's failed to finish, springing an oil leak after 87 miles. It was George's first try at the classic racing event, but he'll probably come back for more next year. Bignotti's backers, Boyes Seal Fast, plan to sponsor him in additional big car racing events this year.

Cub Pack 84 Nines Win League Crowns

Broadmoor Cub pack 84 took both the 'A' and 'B' divisions of the West of Twin Peaks softball league Sunday at West Sunset playground. Team members will receive medals in ceremonies prior to the all-star game Sunday, 1 p.m., at West Sunset.

The 84 'A's dropped pack 37, 12-4, while the 'B's took care of pack 85, 13-4, in the championship games. Both Broadmoor clubs thus completed undefeated seasons.

Dick South, Bruce Hix, Jerry Dorn and Ron Johnson were selected by their coaches to represent pack 84 in the all-star event Sunday, but declined so as to give the other boys a chance to play.

South pitched the 'A's to victory Sunday, giving up only six hits. Meanwhile his teammates pounded out 16 safeties. Hix led the batters with two triples and a double, while South contributed a double to his own cause.

Steve Milan pitched the 'B's to their win over pack 85. The Broadmoor club collected only three singles, two by Larry Skinner and one by John Bartelmez, but they were enough.

BYA Wins Fifth Straight; Buries Boys Club, 32-1
The Broadmoor Youth association buried the San Francisco Boys club, 32-1, Sunday for its fifth straight Junior Managers 'D' league win without a loss.

Tom McHugh pounded out two home runs and a triple to back the steady pitching of Bob Goodwin and Dick Reese. Jim Heick and Art Banos each collected a triple, while Dixie Howell and Bill Dougherty each picked up a double. Singles by Paul Hanley, Don Harris, Bill Reynolds, Goodwin, Reese and Frank Dykes rounded out the BYA attack.

BYA goes after its sixth straight Saturday when it takes on the strong St. Elizabeth's nine at Balboa park, 12:30 p.m. The Broadmoor nine will play a practice game against Dee's Associated Sunday, 2 p.m., at Marchbanks park.

In five league games the potent BYA team has scored 68 runs, while holding the opposition to four. No team has scored more than once on the Broadmoor youth.

Castagnetto Is Dumped In North Calif. Golf Final

Daly City's Ed Castagnetto, seemingly unstoppable in his quest for the Northern California Golf association championship, blew sky-high Sunday and lost in the finals to red-hot Bob Cardinal, 8 and 7, at Napa's Silverado country club course.

Cardinal fired four birdies and an eagle for a 66 in the morning round of the scheduled 36-hole match, and went eight-up on Castagnetto, who was three over par with a 75.

The two battled even in the afternoon and the match ended on the 11th green. Both golfers carded 38s for the front nine of the afternoon round.

Castagnetto, three time city titlist, had torn the course apart prior to Sunday's match. He established a competitive course record of 65 in the qualifying round, and then swept through four straight opponents with 24 birdies in 75 holes.

Woman's High Heel Shoe Causes 3-Car Pileup
A three-car pileup was caused Saturday night when the heel of a woman's shoe caught underneath the accelerator of a car, causing the auto to crash into another vehicle.

Police listed the woman driver as Jean M. Wickersheimer, 18, a cashier of 519 Hillside boulevard. She was cited for following too closely behind another car.

Miss Wickersheimer was attempting a left turn off Mission onto Wellington avenue when the freak accident occurred, police said. Her car crashed into one driven by James B. Leaskou, 29, 10 De Long street, San Francisco, which in turn plowed into an auto driven by Milton Russell, 55, of 116 East Vista avenue.

Leaskou suffered minor injuries officers reported.

PEDESTRIAN RIGHTS
Many motorists seem to forget that in the eyes of the law a pedestrian has just as much right to walk on the highway as a motorist has to drive on it, says the California State Automobile Association. There must be equal respect for the rights of each if accidents are to be avoided.

Rangers, Vikings, Rams Lead Colma Girls' Loop
Noel Ranger's Rangers and Forest Simoncini's Vikings share first place at the half-way point of the Colma elementary school's noon-time girls' softball league, eighth grade division.

In the seventh grade division, Mrs. Muriel Grassman's Rams are leading at the mid-way point. Tom Chapman's Colma Stars and Barbara Biagini's Wildcats are deadlocked for second spot.

Betty Welp's Wildcats and Eleanor Miller's Hornets are tied for second in the eighth grade division.

Cub Olympics Set At Holy Angels School Sunday

Seven athletic events will be featured in the Cub Olympics to be staged Sunday by Cub Pack 261 at Holy Angels parochial school playground.

Scheduled to start at 1:30 p.m., the Olympics will include a relay race, 40-yard dash, 80-yard dash, baseball throw, broad jump and chinning bar, three-legged race and shot put.

Scoring will be based on total points accumulated—four points for first place, three for second, two for third place and one point for fourth place in each event. A pennant will be awarded to the den garnering the most points.

Pack 261, sponsored by the Dads club of Holy Angels school, is headed by Cubmaster Eugene O'Brien, 851 Thornhill, and his assistant, Robert Reed, 847 Thornhill.

St. Vincent de Paul Society To Present Open House June 8

An "Open House" invitation is extended to the public by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 1815 Mission street on Friday, June 8, beginning at 10 a.m. On hand will be K.C.B.S. stars, Jane Todd and Jim Grady, to greet visitors and to thank the public in the name of the society for their recent help in the drive for salvageable discards.

Refreshments and tours of the society's rehabilitation center are planned. It is the rehabilitation center that enables the Society to rebuild and repair donated discards and in turn provide rehabilitative employment for many persons. All proceeds go to serve the needy of all races and creeds. Persons are urged to mark June 8 on their calendars as St. Vincent de Paul Day.

PARTITION SUIT ON MCKEON LANDS IN COURT MONDAY

A partition suit to clarify ownership of the recently-purchased Zano property west of Skyline boulevard will be held Monday in superior court.

A ruling favorable to Chris McKee (Vita Corporation), who recently purchased the 400-acre estate for development of a 3500-home subdivision, would make way for actual construction on the land. The property was purchased a year ago.

Daly City officials are interested in the outcome of the case, since once the subdivision is started a decision on annexation will have to be made by the developers. It is still undecided whether the Vita Corporation will seek to be annexed by Daly City or South San Francisco.

ABOUT TIME
The need for motor car traffic regulations was first realized, says the California State Automobile Association, when the only two cars in Kansas City crashed head-on.

Honeywell Selected Prep All-American

Jim Honeywell, Jefferson high school's great athlete, was among the three northern California football stars named Monday of the National Prep Football Magazine's 1955 All-American honor roll.

Last season Honeywell, the Indian's quarterback, led the league in total offense, was selected all-league and all-northern California and was named Peninsula Athletic League player-of-the-year.

A graduating senior, Honeywell recently received an athletic scholarship from Stanford University, where he plans to go out for the freshman football, basketball and track squads.

Former Jeff Grid Star Is Annapolis Graduate

Pat McCool, former Jefferson high school football star, will be graduated with an Ensign's rating from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis this Friday.

McCool played fullback on offense and tackle on defense while at Jeff and received many grid offers. However he chose Annapolis, got his appointment, and played three years at tackle for the Middies.

McCool is the son of Archie McCool of Minneapolis and Mrs. Ruth Vadyke of San Francisco.

TAXES NOT ALWAYS INEVITABLE

Death and taxes may be the only mandatory obligations required of humanity, but that doesn't mean we have to accept the latter with resignation every time a new money extracting device comes along.

The latest legislative whim is the one-cent sales tax which can be levied by the city on its own option, or by the county at its own risk.

Neither prospect is bright. In fact, the one-cent sales tax is an abomination of which we want no part. And the city council should scrutinize this issue cautiously before committing itself to a tax which has already, on the state level, proved itself bothersome, expensive and a license to foster more lavish spending instead of reducing other taxes as prophesied.

Arguments for the city-adopted one-cent tax include on the one hand the fallacious contention that it would make possible a reduction in property taxes; and on the other that it is the only source of revenue available to pay for much-needed municipal improvements which cannot be financed with property taxes.

Curbing new taxes seems to be the only way citizens can curb new spending. By opposing supplementary taxes citizens can hold at least a temporary check against wastrel and uninhibited spending by governmental agencies.

Witness the federal income tax, which was passed as a temporary emergency measure, only to develop into the most inevitable and distasteful money grab known to the much-taxed American.

The sales tax is not, as one political candidate phrased it, a "regressive" tax—one that hits only the small wage earner. It hits the whole community.

Ask any local merchant, large or small, what he thinks of the present sales tax and the answer will probably be phrased in epithets. Under the new sales tax, the business people would be given a double burden of not only acting as the state's bookkeeper, but the city's also.

Adopt a one-cent sales tax today, and tomorrow you have a two-cent sales tax, next day a three-pence levy, ad infinitum.

We fully realize the great problem municipalities and county agencies have in financing more and more facilities demanded by the citizenry.

That is why the electorate places in office men whom they feel can't achieve the maximum results with minimum expenditures.

We feel any candidate who publicly espouses the abominable sales tax would be committing political hara-kiri. Let the council take it from there.

Doelger Withdraws Petition On Controversial Rezoning

Builder Henry Doelger Monday night withdrew his controversial petition for rezoning Westlake residential property to apartment status in a letter to the city council.

Doelger's request to rezone property in Westlake unit 3, south of South Mayfair and east of Fairway, from R-1 to R-3 was rejected May 16 by the planning commission after protest of some 100 homeowners.

The planners recommendation was first given to the council, after which a letter from Bernard Etcheverry, attorney for Doelger, was read.

Etcheverry asked that the petition be withdrawn. Speaking for Doelger, he said, "We realize this matter can still come before the council but feel we should abide by the decision of the planning commission." The letter said that the planners decision was "fair and impartial," adding that "our only regret is that some citizens cast aspersions on the commission... but we don't feel the planners were intimidated. They acted on the merits of the petition alone." During the planning commission hearing, Hartley Appleton, attorney for the homeowners, said he had heard that the commission "was stacked."

Mayor Joseph Verducci declared that he was "heartily in approval with the planners action."

Bits of News... on Castle street... Miss Dona Lesher is back in circulation again after a siege with three day measles... while across (on Castle) the Baldassarri, Joe and Inez, have added a new arrival—a red and white Ford station wagon. Recent visitors to Reno were the Henneises of Abbot... and the Theodore Dydos of the Lasagna Kitchen... The Sampsinos on Rice street enjoyed a recent weekend in Sheridan visiting the Owen MacNeals, former residents of our city... The Friendly Neighbors club of Abbot are busy planning a "surprise" pot luck dinner—no one knows what the other is bringing, which should be very interesting.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

Mother's Day saw quite a few of our towners spending the day with their mothers here or away. Manila's Billie Buchanan was in San Jose with her mother, Mrs. C. B. Dean, and her sister, Mildred Abinante. Janet and Pete Rizzo traveled up to Eureka to see Janet's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Woodcock, and to pick up daughter Jan, who had been staying with grandma for week. Helen and Charles Schober, Stonefordites, went to Eureka-wards, too. They visited with Helen's mother, Mrs. Bessie Woodcock, and Charles' mother, Mrs. Margaret Schober. (Genealogical note: Helen and Janet are cousins!). And, not to be outdone, the Mitchell tribe went down to Capitola to see Don's mother. (Chamber of Commerce note: For all that parts of the road are rough going, the coast road is our vote for the most beautiful of the peninsula routes. It goes through three or four completely different kinds of country and atmospheres, and is peacefully unaware of crowds of houses and cars. Try it in the early evening of a clear day.)

One of the most appropriate Mother's Day visits we heard of was the visit Sir Stork paid Bernice Pinelli, bringing a 7 lb. 2 oz. boy. Young Robert is the sixth boy for Bernice and Roy, and he has three sisters to welcome him as well! Top honors go to this Village Lane family for being the largest on their street, and probably in the Villages. Wonder who's next largest? We know quite a few families with six children—anyone with seven? This is a children's community, for sure, which gives all of us the added responsibility of making and keeping it a good one for them to grow in.

Speaking of Village Lane, it will lose another family when the Scovels leave. Their ultimate destination is Millbrae Meadows, and speaking of new babies, there's another Maddux resident now. Bob and Madeline Menn have given their Deborah Ann a new 7 lb. sister for her very own, and all three are pleased about the whole thing. The new lassie's name is Charline Mary.

Gert and Larry Green and tribe took a day away from Manila and went to Los Gatos and then over to San Jose, where they saw Vicki and Hugh Falconer, ex-Village Laners. Vickie is up to her old tricks—active in PTA! She's director of organization for 6th district now. One son, Dan, is in military training in Colorado; he had just won a marksmanship trophy. Their other son, Steve, is teaching Indian dancing at the YMCA. (Indian Guides fathers, pay heed!) Vicki and Hugh sent back hellos to all their friends here.

With Indian Guides in mind, they'll be having the big annual camp-out on June 9. Already fathers and son around these parts are readying for it; those who went last year are busy telling the new ones all about it, and the new ones are busy telling each other all about it, too! No doubt they'll all come home just as tired, aching (fathers especially) and happy as they did before!

On IG's most enthusiastic members being Bob Buchanan, here is a good place to congratulate him on being president of the BPOA. That Buchanan home on Manila is a whirlwind of business, what with Billie's Cub Den and her duties as vice president of the Holy Angels Women's Guild. A president and veep in the same household, no less! Who pulls rank on whom?

Sun and shadow: Get well wishes are due this week to two who have been in the hospital lately, Leila Somers of Foothill and young Dick Courtney of Wildwood Court. Dick's the second one of our young ones in town who wound up badly hurt because of a bicycle accident. Both cases happened when youngsters were riding double and the rider's foot got caught in the spokes of the front wheel, so let's remind our children to ride on a bike for safety's sake... We would like to express our sympathy to Tom Noonan, whose sister died recently... Judy Krueger is on the mend again after a nasty three weeks' bout with pneumonia... Too many small fry have had sniffly colds after that about-face in the weather a while ago; at least maybe they'll be all over them before Summer Vacation!

There seems to have been a sort of mass migration to Las Vegas lately. Dorothy and Bill Kearney and Lola and Dick Bocci went up for three days in the middle of the week, but found things just as crowded as on weekends. They stayed at the Desert Inn, and managed to see quite a few of the shows. Vic Damone, Jane Froman and Phil Silvers were all playing at one place or another, and the word is that Phil had several of the Sgt. Bilko platoon with him in his act, including Doberman, of course! A trip to Hoover Dam was on the agenda, too.

The Kearneys and the Boccis weren't the only ones! Roy and Gracia Krueger went up there, too, on the trip Roy won. They flew both ways; Gracia's first time in a plane and she loved it. They stayed at El Rancho Vegas, and also took a trip to Hoover Dam. The shows they saw included Joe E. Lewis, Phil Silvers and Liberace, no less! Gracia tells us that the whole trip was most wonderful and very swish, and it would be very nice to repeat.

This and That: Happy birthday wishes are due Mary Coppola, plus congratulations on now being a member of the BPOA... Ray Savage and Gale Galusha of the BPD have been going to school in the mornings — FBI fingerprint school, that is... Mary Wade, kindergarten teacher beloved by many of the young Villagers, took a weekend off for herself and went to Los Angeles.

George Wall, egg and poultry businessman extraordinary, is currently blowing a mean trombone at the light opera series shows these days; we hear that Coronet and Reader's Digest, etc., share part of his music rack along with the scores of various show tunes. Wonder if the ladies of the orchestra bring their knitting?... That lovely spell of hot weather brought out a rash of bathing suits, shorts, halters, etc. We even saw one gentleman up at the shopping center very comfortably attired in Bermuda shorts and knee socks.

Poor Pat Tannehill! She and Bon had a nice long vacation coming, so they packed up the four children and took off for the town of Mt. Shasta, 60 miles north of Redding. Don has an acre up there, and is fixing up a cabin for vacation use. Anyway, they no sooner got there than all four children came down with flu. They were staying with Don's sister in town, so her two children got it, too. There was nothing to do but come home a week early and spend the rest of their vacation on Washington street. So it goes—it has happened to us, too!

Over on Bryant street, Jean Suenderman had a family dinner and baby shower combined for her niece, Betty Jean Jeser. Betty Jean and her husband, Frank, are both students at State College. All the clan came from far and near for the affair, including BJ's aunt and uncle, Barbara and Robert Prather, and their three children from Sleepy Hollow; her great-aunt, Miss Vine Trumbull, from the East Bay; her brother, Ray Smith, from COP at Stockton; and a family friend, Mrs. Edith Loevinger, from the East Bay. And, of course, her two grandmothers, Mrs. R. C. Smith and Mrs. Edna Vaughn, also from the East Bay. BJ's parents, the Ray Caldwells, can't make it; they are in India again, after a visit here last year.

Another shower, this time one for a bride-to-be, was given by Billie Buchanan for a friend, Maxine Barnes. Invited were Mary Caylor, Euralia Mueller, Jo Davis and Dorothy Moore. The six of them used to work together some years ago in San Francisco, and have kept in touch all along, meeting now and then for social get-togethers.

Three anniversaries to talk about this week, and all three celebrated the same way by seeing "Silk Stockings." Whose anniversaries? Well, Ray and Kay Logan marked off number 14, Mickie and Mac Magnusson arrived at lucky 13, and it was number 11 at our house.

Memory Gomez has come up with a wonderful idea for the summer. She is planning to start a music club for little girls from about 7 to 9 which will meet at her home on Alder Avenue once a week for two hours or so. They'll enjoy a sort of musical mixture—singing, keyboard instruction, rhythms, their own piano concerts (for the club), etc. Anyone who would like to give a little girl a happy experience with music can call Memory at PL 5-3417.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

No doubt some readers wonder why the writer, in this the bicentennial of the birth of the miracle that was Mozart, has yet to add a line to the thousands of inches devoted to him, or to mention even one of the flood of recordings issued to comfort those unable to attend the great festivals of the Jubilee Year.

Actually, the right moment never seemed to appear, until we received an invitation from Marjorie and Norman Werby to attend a Mozart concert at their home on Santa Barbara avenue last Thursday evening.

During the evening a group of young artists headed by Ronald Stoffel, violin, presented several chamber music selections. The ensemble included Mary Sheridan, violin; George Richardson, viola; John Graham, viola; Jeffrey Holm, cello. In addition, there were Morton Subotnick, clarinet and Robert Tefft, horn.

Sensitive Playing
We wish that the people who are always predicting the death of music upon the passing of today's great interpreters, could have heard this young and relatively inexperienced group. Their ability, sensitivity and understanding of what Mozart is all about would reassure the faint-hearted that there is an endless supply of talented young people, quietly preparing for a future which will contain great things.

As we listened to the ensemble carefully and lovingly playing Mozart, it seemed that the years had swept and that we were in the eighteenth century. The illusion was heightened by the Werby's spectacular living room, full of reminders of the grace and elegance of a long-gone day.

Good Conversation
Before and after the concert, the conversation was almost as good as the music; there was Richard Triplett, who did the costumes for the latest Abbott-Abrams Production, "Too Much for TV," and speaking to him reminded us that we hadn't caught up to this witty revue. And there was Hildur Mahl who arrived very late, having rehearsed all evening for the Opera Ring's forthcoming "The Golden Apple." Talking to her reminded us that we haven't yet seen the Ring's current double feature, "The Telephone" and "The Medium."

We were happy to discuss the local Vista Grande Concert association with Mary Ellen (Mrs. Frank T. Jr.) Taffner of Garden Village, who considers the local concerts invaluable in introducing our children to music.

Also chatted with Ronald Stoffel, who will present a concert June 27 at the Museum of Art. He will leave in September for Salzburg to study at the Mozarteum under a Fulbright scholarship. Learned that Jeffrey Holm,

SPECIAL TV SHOWING...

Last week KQED held a special showing of a kinescope from "Together We Grow" television series with Miss Judith Waller, public service counselor to NBC, and originator of NBC's award winning children's program, "Ding Dong School," as special guest. Produced by adult education division of the San Francisco School district with members of the Bay area cooperative nursery schools participating, "Together We Grow" has appeared over Channel 9 since January. The telecast originates at the studios of KPIX which has made its facilities available for the series. The program has received national recognition and was the subject of an article in the May 6 issue of the N. Y. Times which referred to the program as "A television experiment with nationwide possibilities."

In talking to Miss Waller following the program, we found her to be very enthusiastic about educational programs in general. She said that since "Ding Dong School" has moved to New York she is no longer directly connected with the show since her headquarters are in Chicago.

Next Monday evening, June 4, at 8:30 p.m., KQED will feature a special telecast of "Together We Grow" with the directors from the cooperative nursery schools appearing on the program in a discussion and evaluation of the past series. From the local area Mrs. Alvin Pelavin, Director of the Village Play school, and Mrs. Frank Geacalon, acting director of the Lake Merced Play school, will participate in the telecast. In questioning Dr. Alfred J. Azevedo, principal of Marina Adult school and host on the show, about the possibilities of continuing the series, he said "We are going to make every effort to continue the program in the fall, and perhaps offer the program once a month instead of semi-monthly."

KCBS NEWS DEPARTMENT HONORED... KCBS news and public affairs department was the recipient of the majority of the highly prized awards of merit in the 1955 radio competition of the California Associated Press Radio association. BROADMOOR BOY FETES BIRTHDAY IN REAL STYLE

By Gwin Mitchell

It's not every boy who receives an autographed championship game baseball and a special ride in a police car for his 10th birthday, but Ronnie Stern did. The brown-haired, brown-eyed boy, who lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stern, at 736 87th street, Broadmoor Village, had a wonderful day last Sunday when relatives and friends came to a party which lasted all afternoon.

The baseball was the one with which pack 84 won the West of Twin Peaks Little League championship on that very afternoon, and, since Ronnie is a member of the pack, all the players signed the ball and brought it to him as their present. The ride in the police car, taken the day after the party, was the special gift of the Broadmoor police department.

Additional Gifts

There were other gifts, too. A large decorated birthday cake was also from Pack 84, as was a sizeable ship-building kit. The Westlake Hobby Shop and Miller's Toy Circus remembered Ronnie, as did George and Johnnie Wall, who have a local egg delivery service, and, just before the party, Woody Green from the Southgate Barber Shop came to the Stern home and treated the boy to a deluxe haircut.

As Sunday was one of the best of days, weather-wise, plans for an outdoor party could be carried out in full, and games and entertainment were enjoyed by everyone. Special attractions were accordionist Gloria Villalta and ballet dancer Marietta Shanoian.

Relatives Gather

Present for the occasion were both of Ronnie's grandmothers: Mrs. Elsa Muller, who lives with the Sterns, and Mrs. Paquita Corniel. There were aunts and uncles, too—Rita and Rudy Muller, Inga and John Muller—and cousins, Dorothy, Raymond, Eddie, George and Franklin. And, of course, Geoffrey and Edward, Ronnie's brothers.

Invitations to the party were family-wide. The younger set included John Vocke, John Spediacci, Robert Bechtold, John Travinsky, Michael and Donna Reuter, Marietta Shanoian, Edward Koplowitz, Gloria and Sylvia Villalta, Billy and Greg Hamilton, Billy Eagleton, Herbert Schlesinger, Dick South and Allen, Gordon and Sandra Contreras.

Parents Too

Parents who came along were Anita and Jack Schlesinger, Victoria Villalta, Mary and Tony Contreras, Frank and Bertha Koplowitz, Edna and Joe Spediacci, Anita Shanoian, Dean and Marge Reuter, Alice Travinsky, and Claire and Warren Vocke.

Warren Vocke, Cubmaster of Pack 84, and Claire were instrumental in getting another birthday present for Ronnie—the wheel chair which he uses now, and Ken Arnt, a neighbor of the Vockes, is building a ramp so that Ronnie can go in and out of the house more easily.

"There are so many nice people who have done things to make my son happy," said Margaret Stern, Ronnie's mother, "that just saying thank you doesn't seem enough. My husband and I only hope they know how grateful we are, particularly the Vockes and Ronnie's Den Mother, Mrs. Spediacci, and all the boys in Pack 84. This is a wonderful place to live and we are lucky to have so many friends."

Daly City's Lowell Creighton, former Jefferson High School pitcher ace and more recently a bonus baby with the San Francisco Seals, tossed the Jefferson semi-pro club to a 9-7 victory Wednesday over Naval Supply Depot.

Creighton struck out 15 batters, walking six and allowing 11 hits.

The Jefferson nine picked up 19 hits.

DC BOY TO MAKE PLEA MONDAY ON NARCOTIC COUNTS

William Albert Brandt, 20, 473 Knowles avenue, is scheduled to appear in San Francisco superior court Monday for arraignment on two felony narcotic charges.

Two misdemeanor counts of possession of narcotics are set for municipal court on June 29.

Brandt was arrested April 24 by state narcotics enforcement bureau agents at Third and Howard streets in San Francisco. His capture climaxed several months of investigation, according to Inspector A. J. Gazzola who led the probe. At the time of arrest he was rolling what appeared to be a marijuana cigarette, Gazzola said.

The youth is now free on his own recognizance under the custody of his father.

Warren Vocke, Cubmaster of Pack 84, and Claire were instrumental in getting another birthday present for Ronnie—the wheel chair which he uses now, and Ken Arnt, a neighbor of the Vockes, is building a ramp so that Ronnie can go in and out of the house more easily.

Something For Everyone

News of Your Local Library

Jazz, "the real American music," is sweeping Europe, Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong reported recently after a three-month, 10-nation tour of western Europe. He said that jazz is "like religion" to Europeans.

That Americans have lost none of their enthusiasm for this popular form of music is apparent at the Daly City public library, where there is difficulty in keeping up with demand for books about jazz music and jazz makers.

The history of jazz, the music which originated in New Orleans and was known as jazz in the 20's, is presented in such books as "Orin Keepnews" recently published A PICTORIAL HISTORY OF JAZZ. This book, which includes some 500 photographs, covers more than 50 years of jazz—from its early beginnings to the present time.

In Perspective

Jazz is presented in perspective against the background of all American music in Sigmund Spaeth's A HISTORY OF POPULAR MUSIC IN AMERICA, in which the foremost authority on American music devotes several chapters to jazz and its variations.

Younger readers have not been forgotten by authors, either. Louis Armstrong's early life is told by Jeannette Eaton in TRUMPETER'S TALE, and Langston Hughes has covered the subject in two books for young people: THE FIRST BOOK OF JAZZ and FAMOUS NEGRO MAKERS.

Other new books on music in its more serious aspects include David Ewen's definitive biography of George Gershwin, A JOURNEY TO GREATNESS, Robert Magdoff's life of San Francisco's own YEHUDY MENUHIN, and Samuel Chotzinoff's reminiscences of TOSCAINI.

Four recently-acquired reference books on music will assist the student and general reader interested in musicians and composers. All are by David Ewen, one of our foremost writers on music, and they comprise a series: COMPOSERS OF YESTERDAY, EUROPEAN COMPOSERS TODAY, and LIVING MUSICIANS. These titles are available at the Daly City Public Library for use in the library building.

Avid interest in music reproduction in the home is evidenced by a veritable rash of books on high fidelity. Among them are E. T. Canby's HOME MUSIC SYSTEMS: THE HIGH FIDELITY READER, composed of articles extracted from the magazine HIGH Fidelity, and Irving Green's NEW HIGH FIDELITY HANDBOOK.

DANGEROUS PASSING
Engineers designed the three-lane highway to permit passing, points out the National Automobile club. If, however, you swing out to pass without paying very much attention to oncoming traffic, your passing in the third lane is apt to have results never planned by the engineers.

PICTURED ABOVE is lovely Cecile Stickey, as one of the finalists in the "Miss San Francisco Pageant of 1956," sponsored by the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce, public relations committee. Cecile is a senior at Jefferson Union high school. She will take part in the evening gown, talent, and swim suit categories of the pageant at the finals this Friday evening, June 1 at 8 p.m. at the Fairmont hotel, Terrace room.

When dry, the paper comes off with water leaving exact spaces for the white filler cement. Perfect for kitchen, bathroom or rumpus room walls—this the costs only 48c a square foot and lasts for a lifetime of wear and washing. See it soon at MILLS & HINZ TILE CO. You can "do it yourself"—easily—and at a more than 50 percent savings for labor cost alone!

"Viva!" for CARLO'S PIZZERIA NO. 2 at 6288 Mission street. Opens for lunch at 11 a.m. and that lunch is really "something!" For just $1.00 you have a delicious entree, a choice of soup or salad and ice cream and coffee. CARLO'S labels this a "merchants lunch," but ladies—give yourself a treat and try it someday for a lift you'll long remember.

ORTE'S DEPARTMENT STORE at 6340 Mission street has added a stately STORK to its stock. To have this bird grace any Baby Shower, all you need do is make a five dollar purchase of any merchandise in the store. Mr. Stork will then be yours for 24 hours. ORTE'S, which offers you an amazing and reasonably priced selection of clothing, is also a Charge Key and Thrifty Shopper Stamp store for your convenience.

Marie and Tim McCarthy, owners of the COLISEUM GARAGE at 7252 Mission street, thought they were confirmed San Franciscans after operating for 9 years there at 330 Baker street—but now—Marie is casting a "housewife's eye" at Daly City and liking what she sees! "Why" says she "it's so convenient here! When Tim needs parts, all I have to do is stroll down or up the street and there is GATEWAY CHEVROLET, DEVILLE MOTORS, DALY CITY AUTO PARTS, etc.—everything we need!"

ABBY'S PET SALON located at 2414 Junipero Serra Blvd. and owned by Abby Betschowa—a cute, calm brunette, is one of the most charmingly set up businesses in Daly City. Specialty of the house (or should we say "maison") is grooming and trimming, but you'll find lots of clever ceramic, cloth or rubber Poodles for sale—and you'll see them on vases and plaques, too! Poodles, Abby loves—(she does have some pups for sale)—and she has been in the business of raising and showing pure bred dogs for 19 years—to give you a small idea of her experience. But whether you have pure breeds or are a "garden variety" dog lover like myself—we know you'll enjoy a visit to ABBY'S PET SALON.

McGraw Brothers "REXALL" DRUG STORE now offers you their own, specially compounded vitamins under the brand names of "6-16" (for children of that age group and suited to their particular needs) and "Valumins"—which contain vitamins, all the necessary minerals and Choline and Inositol—the ingredients which make "Valumins" a must for the geriatric, or elderly, person.

LOMARK, located at 2899 Junipero Serra Blvd. opposite the SERA THEATRE, is putting even super market prices in the soup now that it has become a CANNED FOOD OUTLET for this area. And, in thirty days, construction will start on a 25,000 square foot building (which will have 35,000 sq. ft. of parking space) across from LOMARK's present location and next to JOE'S NURSERY. You can really save money here on canned goods!

DC Fire Chief Warns Against Foolish Fueling

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy today issued the following advice to Daly City residents who are owners of power mowers or outboard motors:

Remember that as little as half a pint of gasoline, spilled on the floor, vaporized and ignited, can and too frequently does cause fatal results.

Always store gasoline in a standard safety can (look for UL label), never in glass jugs or old oil cans that could easily break, leak, or spill.

Put your cigarette out before pouring gasoline—and always stop the motor and wait until it cools before refilling a gas tank.

Do your fueling outdoors—never fuel or operate gasoline motors in closed garages, indoors, and especially in below-grade basements.

COPS BOOK DC HOUSEWIFE ON DRUNK DRIVING

A Daly City housewife, booked on a drunk driving count here Friday night after a head-on crash on Hillside boulevard, was held at Community hospital for 72 hours when police said she threatened suicide.

The woman, Pearl F. Affolter, 43, of 242 Wyandotte street, is scheduled to appear in municipal court Tuesday on the drunk driving charge. She is now free on $250 cash bail.

Officers said the accident occurred at 8:15 p.m. on Hillside and East Vista. They reported that Mrs. Affolter was driving over the white line when her auto crashed into a car driven by Mrs. Genevieve M. Beltrami, 46, of San Carlos.

A passenger in Mrs. Beltrami's vehicle, Mrs. Francis Woodman, 58, also of San Carlos, was reported as having suffered minor injuries.

Mrs. Affolter drove on after the accident but was forced over to the curb by officers, who said they had to assist her in dismounting from the car. A sobriety test at Junipero Serra hospital showed positive results.

Krause is convalescing from a recent operation, and, although he is still feeling a bit weak, he was getting along much better last week, Mrs. Krause said.

Hope Lutheran Church To Confirm First Group

The first group of young people to be confirmed in the newly dedicated Hope Lutheran church, will kneel before the altar Sunday at 11 a.m. and pledge their faithfulness. The service will be conducted by the Pastor, the Rev. Louis C. Marting.

Though not commanded by Scripture, the rite of confirmation has been retained in the Lutheran church because it gives the youth of the church opportunity to become aware of the great responsibility that belongs to them as part of the church, according to Pastor Marting.

Following the rite of Confirmation, the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed. The young confirmands will partake of the Sacrament for the first time.
